

PROGRAM COMMITTEE: Karen Offen, University of San Francisco
 Donna L. Boutelle, California State University, Long Beach
 Susan Diamondstone, Stanford University
 Ann Forfreedom, California State University, Sacramento

HOLY SPIRIT RETREAT HOUSE 4316 LANAI RD., ENCINO, CA. 213-784-4515

FRIDAY, APRIL 2

8:00 "Womansing"--An evening of songs about women, featuring
 Ruthie Gorton, Los Angeles
 Winetasting

SATURDAY, APRIL 3

8:00 Breakfast

9:00- Research Sessions
 10:30

- A. Recent Work in American Labor History
 Chair and Comment: Sally M. Miller, University of the Pacific
 "Betwixt and Between: Cincinnati Working-Class Women, 1893-1920," Barbara Musselman, University of Alabama at Birmingham
 "The King-Ramsay-Connor Case: Labor, Law Enforcement, and Oral History," Miriam Feingold Stein, Regional Oral History
 Office, University of California, Berkeley
- B. New Perspectives on the Italian Renaissance
 Chair and Comment: Elisabeth G. Gleason, University of San Francisco
 "Aspects of Church Finances in the High Renaissance: The Role of Papal Bankers and the Services they Provided the Camera Apostolica," Melissa Bullard, Cornell University
 "The Education of Italian Women in the Fourteenth Century," Patricia O'Neill Mitchell, Laguna Beach, CA
- C. Comparative Studies in the History of Prostitution: Paris and San Francisco
 Chair: David Ruckman, Stanford University
 "Prostitution in Paris, 1789-1793: The Revolutionary Approach to Reform and Regulation of the Fille Publique," Jeanne Ojala, University of Utah
 "Prostitution in San Francisco: Gold Rush to 1900--The Professionals," Jacqueline Barnhart, University of California, Santa Cruz
 Comment: Ruth Rosen, University of California, Davis

11:00- Research Sessions
 12:30

- A. Quantitative Studies in American History
 Chair and Comment: Carolyn Lougee, Stanford University
 "The New England Hospital for Women and Children," Virginia
 Drachman, SUNY at Buffalo and the Smithsonian Institution
 "Changing Patterns of Informal Group Membership in Seattle, 1852-1910," Janice Webster, University of Washington

- B. Recent Work on World War II: Diplomatic and Moral Issues
 Chair and Comment: Dorothy A. Sexter, California State University, Sacramento
 "The Neutral Ally: Ireland, England, and the German Enemy," Carolle J. Carter, Menlo College
 "Vatican Reaction to the Extermination of the Jews," Sister Ethel Mary Tinnemann, Holy Names College
- C. Woman-as-Subject in European Intellectual History
 Chair and Comment: Cissie Bonini, University of California, Riverside
 "Decision-Making in Women and Slaves: An Analysis of Aristotle's Politics," Maryanne Cline Horowitz, Occidental College
 "Women-as-they-are and as-they-ought-to-be in Sixteenth Century England," Josephine M. Fay, California State College, Dominguez Hills
- 1:00 Lunch
- 2:15 Business Meeting: Election of New Officers
- 3:30-5:30 Workshops
- A. "Teaching the History of Women: Method and Sources"
 Coordinator: Ruth Rosen, University of California, Davis
 Panel: Susan Groag Bell, University of Santa Clara
 Candace Slater, University of California, Santa Cruz
 Carlagaye Olson, California State University, Sacramento
- B. "Part-Time Teaching: A Viable Career Strategy?"
 Coordinator: Emily Abel, Santa Monica City College
 Panel: Peg Stroebel, University of California, Los Angeles
 Lois Weinman, California State University, Long Beach
 The Audience
- 6:00 Dinner
- 8:00 Guest Speaker: "What has Africa given America?" Skyne Uku, Chairwoman, Black Studies, California State University, Long Beach

SUNDAY, APRIL 4

- 8:00 Breakfast
- 8:45-10:45 Research Sessions
- A. Our Sister's Republics: Latin American Women in the 19th and early 20th Centuries
 Chair and Comment: Mary Lowenthal Felstiner, California State University, San Francisco
 "The Laws of Men, the Rights of Women in 19th-century Mexico," Siliva Arrom, Stanford University
 "Independent Brazil: The Incomplete Emancipation," Francesca Miller, University of California, Davis
 "Modern Women and Modern Arts in 20th-Century Brazil,"
 Mary Lombardi, University of California, Los Angeles

B. The Variety of Religious Roles for American Women

- Chair and Comment: Renee Kogel, The Claremont Colleges
 "Protestant Women Missionaries in Meiji Japan: Mission Work as a Career for Single Women in the 19th Century," Sandra C. Thomson, University of Utah
 "A Nun's Story--Mother M. Teresa Comerford, Co-Foundress of the Sisters of the Presentation, San Francisco,"
 Sister Ann Curry, Los Angeles, CA
 "Women among the Sikhs and Chassidim of Los Angeles,"
 Marilyn Garber, California State College, Dominguez Hills

C. Biography as History: Three Perspectives

- Chair and Discussion Leader: Sherna Gluck, Feminist History Research Project
 "Julia Morgan: Architect," Sara Holmes Boutelle, Santa Cruz, CA
 "Tz'u-Hsi, Dowager Empress of China," Sue Fawn Chung, University of Nevada, Las Vegas
 "Matilda Joslyn Gage," Sally Wagner, University of California, Santa Cruz

11:00- Research Sessions

1:00

- A. Radicals, Reformers, and Race in Pre-World War I America
 Chair: Emory Tolbert, University of California, San Diego
 "Dress Rehearsal in Race Relations: Pre-War American Radicals and the Black Question," Leslie Fishbein, Rice University
 "The Quiet Emissary: Mary White Ovington, an Agent for Change," Ethel Rankin, Biola College
 "The Lost Crusade: The Independent and the Race Question, 1900-1914," Doris Meadows, New York University
 Comment: Jacquelyn S. Haywood, University of California, Riverside
- B. Working-Class Culture and Social Policy in 19th and 20th Century Europe
 Chair and Comment: S. Joan Moon, California State University, Sacramento
 "French Socialist Women, Feminist Consciousness, and the Reproductive Mode: 1890-1914," Marilyn Boxer, California State University, San Diego
 "Feminism, Socialism, and Population Policy: the 1926 Program of the Austrian Socialist Party," Ingrun Lafleur, N.E.H. Fellow at the University of California, Los Angeles
- C. Sources for Research in the History of American Women
 Coordinator: Lynn Bonfield Donovan, Manuscript Librarian and Director of Women in California Collection, California Historical Society
 Manuscripts: Patricia J. Palmer, Manuscripts Librarian, Stanford University Libraries; Anne Caiger, Historical Manuscript Librarian, Research Library, University of California, Los Angeles
 Archives: Jo Ann Williamson, Chief, Archives Branch, National Archives and Records Service, San Bruno, CA

1:00 Lunch

S. Joan Moon
Department of History
California State University
Sacramento, CA 95819

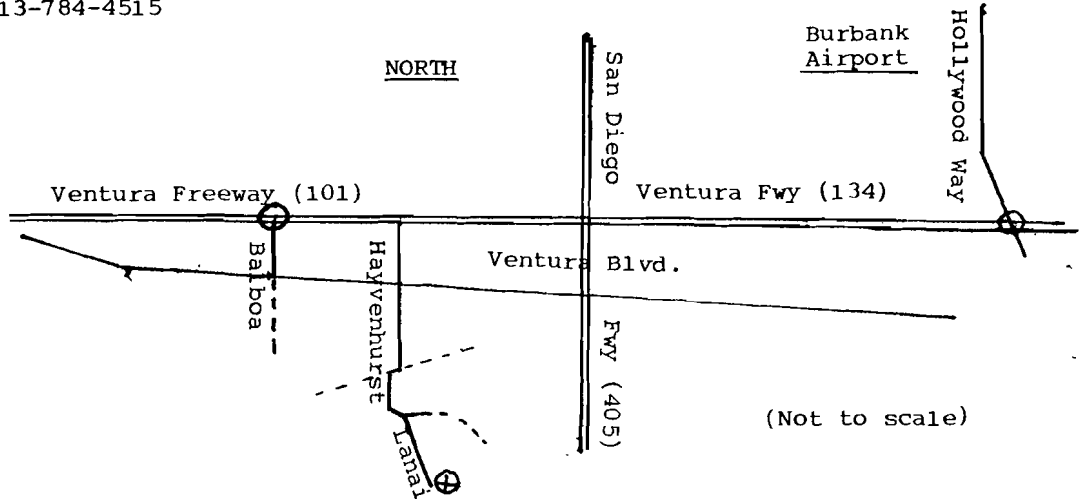

1976

2nd Annual Program

ACCOMODATIONS: Full room and board (5 meals, 2 nights, double occupancy) is $30.00. Persons not wishing room and board may take meals only, but PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. Breakfasts are $3.00 each, lunches $3.00 each, Saturday night dinner is $4.00. For those wishing to make their own arrangements, within ten miles are two Motel "6's" ($6.00 per person per night double occupancy) at 2850 Camino dos Rios, Newbury Park, 91320 and 2566 North Erringer Road, Simi, 93065. Within two miles are the Sherman Oaks Motel in Sherman Oaks and the Encino Travelodge in Encino.

CHILD CARE will be provided, but PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. If there is no demand, we will not provide the staffing.

DIRECTIONS: Holy Spirit Retreat House, 4316 Lanai Road, Encino, California, 213-784-4515

RETURN RESERVATION FORM TO PAT FOUQUET, HISTORY DEPT, CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH, CA. 90840. DEADLINE FOR RESERVATIONS IS MARCH 20:

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

TOTAL COST FOR ROOM AND BOARD FOR WEEKEND, DOUBLE OCCUPANCY ONLY*, $30 _____

CHILD CARE _____ AGES _____

REGISTRATION FEE: $7.00 employed; $3.00 unemployed and students _____

1976 DUES IF UNPAID: $5.00 employed; $2.00 unemployed and students _____

MEALS: Breakfasts, $3.00@_____ ; Lunches $3.00@_____ ; Dinner $4.00 _____

TOTAL ENCLOSED _____

*ROOMATE'S NAME, IF YOU HAVE ONE _____
(Otherwise, we will pair.)