WHAT IS THE WAWH?

The Western Association of Women Historians was founded in 1969 to promote the interests of women historians both in academic settings and in the field of history generally. Drawing scholars from the Western states and now serving 500 members, the WAWH is the largest of the regional women's historical associations in the United States.

The WAWH holds an annual spring conference for the presentation of scholarly work, new research, and the discussion of teaching methods, writing, and other issues of importance to women scholars. Sessions devoted to the work and interests of graduate students are encouraged. Four prizes are presented annually at the Awards Banquet. Recent conferences have been held at the Asilomar Conference Center in Pacific Grove (May 1999), The Huntington Library (June 2000, April 2002), and Lewis and Clark College in Portland, Oregon (May 2001).

The WAWH encourages the participation of independent scholars who consistently play an integral role in the organization. In addition to academic historians, WAWH also welcomes literary scholars, art, theater, and film specialists. A directory of all members, with addresses, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, and research interests, appears roughly every two years (most recently in April 2002).

The organization’s web site is: www.wawh.org
WAHW AWARDS AND PRIZES

Founders Dissertation Fellowship
Applicants must be members of the WAWH, advanced to candidacy, writing the dissertation at the time of the application, and expecting to receive the degree no earlier than December of the award year. The $1000 may be used for expenses related to the dissertation.

Barbara Penny Kanner Prize
The Western Association of Women Historians will award $500 to the best scholarly bibliographical and historical guide to research focused on women or gender history. The Kanner Award is intended to promote the practice of bibliomethodology or autobiography in historical context. The bibliomethodology award should reflect the critical tools of the historian’s craft as they have been developed to provide research guides rather than library catalogues. The autobiography in historical context award should reflect the craft of history as developed and interpreted in individual lives. Book-length submissions are preferred but substantial guides in other forms (articles or book chapters) may also be considered. The bibliographical and the autobiography awards will be given in alternate years, with submissions for each award considered for two-year intervals from the date of publication.
WAWH AWARDS AND PRIZES

Judith Lee Ridge Prize
The WAWH will award $100 for the best article in the field of history published by a WAWH member. All recipients shall be members of the WAWH for at least one year prior to submission. The article must have been published in one of the two years proceeding the award year.

All fields of history will be considered, and articles must be submitted with full scholarly apparatus.

Sierra Book Prize
The WAWH will award the Sierra Book Prize ($250) for the best monograph in the field of history published by a WAWH member. Eligibility is limited to two groups: those residing in Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Texas, Utah, Washington, Wyoming or the Western Canadian Provinces; and WAWH members residing in other states who have paid membership for three years (not necessarily consecutive years).
